

Mark Berman is a partner in the firm's Commercial Litigation practice group as well as in its other litigation practice groups. He co-heads the firm's Complex Title Insurance Litigation practice. Mr. Berman is a member of the firm's Cooperative and Condominium Housing Practice Group.

He has extensive experience in representing private and public companies, as well as partnerships and individuals, as plaintiffs and defendants, in complex commercial matters with an emphasis on real estate disputes, electronic discovery conflicts, and complex title insurance issues.

Mr. Berman is experienced in all phases of litigation in both state and federal courts as well as in arbitral forums. He is a seasoned appellate attorney, having argued many cases before both the First and Second Departments. Mr. Berman is also a trained mediator. He has also been appointed as a discovery master by a New York Commercial Division Justice.

Prior to joining, he was an associate in the litigation department at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP and clerked for United States Magistrate Judge Michael L. Orenstein for the Eastern District of New York.

Mr. Berman has written and lectured extensively on electronic discovery, social media and ethics issues before the American Bar Association, the New York State Bar Association and the New York State Judicial Institute, the First and Second Appellate Divisions of the New York Supreme Court. He has been appointed by the Chief Administrative Judge as a member of New York State E-Discovery Working Group advising the New York State Unified Court System.

Mr. Berman was Chair of the Commercial and Federal Litigation Section of the New York State Bar Association (NYSBA) for 2016-2017. He is an "at large" representative on the Executive Committee of NYSBA and Chair of NYSBA's newly formed Committee on Technology and the Legal Profession.

Since 2005, Mr. Berman has authored a column in The New York Law Journal addressing electronic discovery under New York State law. Mr. Berman's articles have been quoted in both appellate and trial court decisions.

Mr. Berman is rated "AV" by Martindale-Hubbell, the highest level in professional excellence and ethics, and has been selected as a "New York Super Lawyer" annually since 2008.
